SES International B.V. and cookies

Our website only uses functional and standard analytical cookies. These cookies do not require permission from the visitor to the website. Nevertheless, we think it is important that you have control over your online privacy. That is why we would like to inform you as completely as possible about which cookies we use and for what purposes.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that a website stores on your computer, tablet or mobile phone when you visit the website. These cookies store information about your website visit. By using cookies, a website can recognize you when you visit the website again. This can be useful, for example, if you do not want to log in again each time you visit the website.

Different types of cookies

There is a difference between functional and non-functional cookies. Functional cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. For example, they ensure that the website adapts to the size of your computer screen. In addition to functional cookies, we also store analytical cookies. This is an example of a non-functional cookie. He is not necessary for the website to function properly. These analytical cookies enable us to measure website visits completely anonymously. As a result, we know which website components are popular and where we can improve our website.

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to gain insights from the data. Analytical cookies collect the following data, among others:

- Tracking the number of visitors on our web pages.

- Keep track of the duration of the visit.

- The searches made on the website.

- Information about your browser and device with which you visit our website, such as operating system and screen size.

- The way you ended up on our website, for example, whether you clicked on a link in a Facebook message.

- All this data is measured completely anonymously. The possibly filled in personal data (such as name, address, telephone number) are not used for analytical purposes and will never be provided to third parties without explicit permission. You can read more about this in our privacy policy.

Block and delete cookies

You can choose to block the placement of cookies through your browser. If you block all cookies, websites might not work as well. It is better to only selectively disable unwanted cookies. You can do this in your browser at the settings. You can also delete cookies here if you wish.

The privacy statement and cookie policy do not apply to internet sites of third parties that are connected to this website through links. In addition, SES International reserves B.V. reserves the right to make changes to the privacy policy and / or the disclaimer and / or the cookie policy. Check our website for the most current version. This policy entered into force in June 2019.
